STANDARD BAROMETER READINGS.

The following information is published in order that vessels in the Bombay Harbour may, by comparison with a standard instrument, ascertain the errors of their barometers:—

The reading of the Standard Barometer at the Colaba Observatory corrected for index error, and reduced to 80 deg. F. and to the level of the tide at 8–45 a. m., Standard time, on the 27th June 1913 was 29·805 inches. For temperature corrections applicable to mercurial barometers of ships, the reading of the ship's barometer is to be increased or decreased by ·013 inch for every 5 degrees, according as the temperature of the attached thermometer is respectively below or above 80 deg. F. In case of the aneroid no temperature correction is needed, but for comparison at 80° F all aneroid readings should be increased by 1·8 inch. For correcting the ship's barometer, either mercurial or aneroid, for the height of the barometer cistern above the tide level in the stream at 8-45 a. m. Standard Time, the ship's barometer reading should be increased by ·010 inch for every 10 feet of this height, to make it comparable with the observatory barometer reading given above.

entitled to sue and proceed in this suit in his individual capacity. In the Insolvency Act, your Lordship would find in what suits the official Assignee has to act. (vide Sec. 55 of Pres. T. I. Act). even though the insolvency Act has supervened the Transfer of Property Act, there are some matters which are not mentioned in Sec. 55 of the Insolvency Act, and in these matters, the Official Assignee cannot oust the creditors.

(Mr. Setalvad read here passages from the case of Goldsmith v. Russell. 5. Macnaughten and Gordon.)

Davar J:—That case I would consider if I was insisting on the Official Assignee being made the defendant.

Mr. Setalvad:—No, my Lord, in this case the Official Assignee wanted to be placed in the position of the plaintiff. In this case insolvency supervened after the suit was instituted. The objection would have been valid if the insolvency had been before the suit was instituted. Your Lordship would see that it would not apply to a suit already instituted. If the insolvency had been before, then the Official Assignee would surely act for the creditors. It it best for all parties, both parties being willing to proceed with the suit.

Davar J:—There is no doubt that the suit can go on. My only doubt is whether the plaintiff can go on. Is there no Indian case? Has no case ever arisen on this point?

Has no case ever arisen on this point?

Mr. Setalvad:—No, my Lord.

His Lordship said that he would consider the question just discussed. If he found that the suit cannot proceed further, it would come on board "for judgment." If he came to the conclusion that the suit must go on, it would appear on board as "part heard."

Solicitors for the plaintiffs: Unvala Pherozeshah and Papa, Solicitors for defendants 2—7: Messrs. Payne and Co.

LONDON, June 13.

POLO.

Consternation and disappointment are mild words to express the feelings of the British public when the result of the great international polo match, played at Meadowbrook, between England and the United States on Tuesday, was known. The interest, even among those who had never seen a polo match, had become intense. Even the British working man, over his midday bread and cheese and beer could be overheard discussing the prospects. There was a general feeling that England had an excellent chance of "getting some of her own back," after an irritating series of athletic defeats. All the reports of our team's progress and the accounts of their splendid form and that of their ponies, served to work the excitement up to fever heat.

Then came the disappointing result a win for America by 5½ goals to 3, and a gloom which could be felt, reigned over England. England were represented by Captain Leslie Cheape No. 1; Captain Noel Edwards, No. 2; Captain Ritson, No. 3; and Captain Lockett, back; while the American champions were Mr. L. Waterbury No. 1; Mr. Monte Waterbury No. 2; Mr. Hary Payne Whitney, No. 3; and Mr. Devereux Milburn, back. The constitution of the American team was altered almost at the last moment. There were over 50,000 spectators present and the weather was ideal.

Play was entirely in English territory in the first period for the first minute of the hour. Captain Lockett saved twice and then Monte Waterbury scored for America in 1min. 36secs. Two more goals were scored in rapid succession. finals, the Cottesmore, allowing the Bicester 4 goals start, won by 9 goals to 7. The old Etonians defeated the Quidnuncs by 12 to 7.

In the Junior Championship Tournament at Roehampton, the Foxhunters easily vanquished the home club by 11 to 4. On Friday, the Old Cantabs defeated the 15th Hussars by 9 to 2, while in the second of the Hunt semi-finals at Ranelagh, the Pytchley B., giving the Essex Union, a start of 3 goals, won by 11 to 5. In the semi-final of the junior championship at Roehampton, the Pilgrims, the holders, scored a convincing victory over Cosmopolitan by 15 to 3.

On Friday, Roehampton, on their own ground, defeated the Scots Guards by 8 goals to 6, while on Saturday, at Ranelagh, in the final of the Hunt Tournament, Pytchley, giving a start of 2 goals, defeated the Cottesmore by 9 goals to 7. The Old Cantabs scored 6 goals to the 2 obtained by the Tigers. At Hurlingham, the Old Etonians scored 7 goals to the Woodpeckers 5, the 11th Hussars, 7 to Capron House's 2 and the 1st Life Guards 10 to Hurlingham's 4. At Roehampton the Pilgrims retained the Junior Championship by defeating the Foxhunters in the final by 7 goals to 5. The 15th Hussars accomplished a fine performance by defeating the Quidnuncs by 9 goals to 8, while the Wasps defeated Swillington by 5 to 2.

On Monday at Roehampton, the Quidnuncs, after an exciting game, just beat the Old Cantabs by 9 to 8 while the 12th Lancers defeated the home club by 4 to 2. In the first round of the Public Schools Cup, Old Etonians B won easily from the Old Marlburians by 8 to 3.

At Hurlingham on Tuesday, the 12th Lancers defeated the Queen's Bays by 12 to 6 and the 15th Hussars beat Hurlingham by 6 to 5. At Ranelagh, the Brigade of Guards, with a start of 7 goals, were beaten by the Magpies, in a tie in the Points Cup Tournament by 12 to 10.

On Wednesday at Ranelagh, the Royal Horse Guards won their tie in the first round of the Inter-Regimental Tournament against the 2nd Life Guards by 5 goals to 2 and later the Old Cantabs defeated the Quidnuncs by 5 to 4. At Hurlingham, the home club defeated the Tigers by 10 to 9, while the Magpies, giving 6 goals start, beat the Gondolier by 14 to 8. At Roehampton, somewhat of a surprise was created by the 6 to 2 victory of the Old Wellingtonians over the Old Rugbeians. The Old Wellingtonians had never previously entered for the Public Schools Cup.

CRICKET.

There have been some wonderful performances in county cricket latterly but so far, nothing more remarkable has been than George Gunn's feat of scoring 132 and 109 not out in the match against Yorkshire. George Gunn is undoubtedly a great batsman and has many fine performances to his credit both here and in Australia but certainly he has never done anything more purely spectacular than his two centuries against the Champions at Trent Bridge.

Yorkshire had started by running up the tall score of 471, of which David Denton was responsible for 148, made in his usual cheery fashion. B. B. Wilson, who is playing most consistently, made 89 and young Kilner, who is making sure of his place in the team, 76. Notts' reply of 331, was entirely due to George Gunn, John Gunn (65) Hardstaff (46) and Payton (26), only Iremonger with 19, of the others scoring double figures. In their second innings Yorkshire declared at 112 for 3, leaving Notts with 252 to get to win and not much time in which to do it. When stumps were drawn, they had made 129 for 3, of which George Gunn made 109 not out. His first innings of 132 was faultless but cautious. His second was faultless and brilliant. He hit the ball how and when he liked, and scord 53 out of 55,100 out of 115 in seventy minutes and 109 out of 129 in less than an hour and a half. Truly an amazing performance!

Already the championship seems to have resolved itself into a race between Yorkshire and Kent. The latter gained yet another convincing victory on Saturday last, this time at the expense of Lancashire at Old Trafford by ten wickets. Their victory looked certain half way through the game for in reply to a first innings of 354 by the Southerners, Lancashire could only make 196. Jas. Seymour contributed yet another century 107 to be exact, and Humphreys (61) and Woolley (77) proved how consistently valuable they are to Kent. John Tyldesley and Sharp were the only Lancastrians to do much against the Kent bowling. Tyldesley made 65 and Sharp 45. Fairservice took 5 for 48. Following on, they fared even worst and could only muster 159, A. H. Hornby, the captain, being top-scorer with 43. Fairservice again bowled excellently, taking 5 for 44 while Blythe took 4 for 42. Kent were left with only two runs to get to win.

Gloucestershire caught Worcestershire in a most aggressive mood at Worcester and paid the penalty by losing by an innings and 136 runs. Bowley (201) Pearson (103) H. K. Foster (83) and W. B. Burns (102) not out enabled Worcestershire to declare at 529 for the loss of only 4 wickets. Gloucestershire's reply was feeble in comparison and they were out for 197 and 196, only Dipper (48) and M. A. Green (50) in the first innings and C. S. Barnett (63) in the second, showing much form. Burns followed up his century by doing the hat-trick in Gloucestershire's first innings.

Somerset have at last won a match. It was largely due to the fine bowling of their young amateur, J. C. White, that they succeeded in defeating Derbyshire at Taunton on Saturday by 91 runs. Somerset's first innings of 173 was almost entirely due to M. P. Bajana (78) and E. S. M. poyntz (50), no one else making more than 13. Derbyshire collapsed before the brilliant bowling of White and were all out for 41, White capturing 6 for 26 while the veteran Robson took 4 for 12. Somerset, second effort realised 190, Poyntz being top-scorer with 44. Wanting 323 to win, Derbyshire played excellently up to a point and on Saturday only wanted 148 with 6 wickets to fall. White against proved the destroyer of their hopes, however, and bowled with startling effect, taking five wickets in eleven overs for 12 runs, his record for the second innings being 6 for 57. White is only 22 and learnt his bowling chiefly from the old Somerset slow bowler, E. J. Tyler.

The two Relfs played a big part in the victory of Sussex over Leicester at Leicester. Leicester did not do so badly to make 257 in their first innings, but Sussex replied with 391 and as the home side could only make 75 at their second venture, they were beaten by an innings and 59. Whitehead made 93 and King 66 in Leicester's first innings. It was a great game for that fine all-rounder Albert Relf, who in addition to making 130, took 6 for 30 in Leicester's second innings. His younger brother Robert must also have been quite satisfied with scoring 76 and taking 3 for 49 in the first innings. The amateur P. Cartwright, did well to make 70 and the veteran. Killick, bowled really well in Leicester's second innings, taking 4 for 19.

The game between Cambridge University and Hampshire was remarkable for high scoring and ended in a draw. Hampshire declared their first innings closed at 472 for 7 wickets, the principal scorers being the remarkable Philip Mead, with 160 not out, E. M. Sport with 69 and Brown with 59. Cambridge replied in spirited fashion, with 493, towards which R. B. Lagden contributed 121, W. N. Riley, 121, the Hon. H. G. Mulholland, 59 and E. L. Kidd 50. Hampshire lost 4 wickets in their second innings for 123, Mead 50 not out, and having a record the game of 210 runs without the loss of his wicket.

If there is one county which Surrey would rather defeat than [illegible] that county is probably Middlesex. They tasted the bitters of defeat ever at Lords on Monday at the metropolitan rivals won by Middlesex started off with [illegible] wards which W. P. Robertson chief contributor with [illegible] Hitch bowled grandly, taking 86, but was overworked. [illegible] plied, inadequately, with 12 scorers being Hayes and G. 31 each. Tarrant took 6 for fairly even scoring, Middlesex 239 in their second innings Hearne topping the list, with [illegible] lowed closely by Tarrant (4) Hendren (47). Set 311 to win, started badly by losing Hobbs Bird for 21. Hayes (68) made a [illegible] effort to save his side and [illegible] tail played up well but all to no pose and Surrey were all out for Tarrant again bowled finely, this time taking 7 for 100.

The sweets of victory have yet come the way of Essex and they underwent another defeat at Northampton losing by eight wickets. The result was chiefly due to the grand slow bowling of S. G. Smith, who took 7 Essex wickets for 39 in the first innings and 5 for 55 in the second. Essex were all out for the first time for 161 of which the professional Russell was responsible for 89, carrying his bat through the innings. The only other double figure innings was 31 by Douglas. Northampton made 255, East playing well for 71 and J. S. Denton for 48. Essex' second attempt realised only 160 of which Freeman made 54. Northampton lost two wickets in obtaining the 67 necessary for victory.

Both Yorkshire and Kent continued their victorious career on Wednesday, the former defeating Leicester by an innings and 108 runs while Kent were victorious over Worcestershire by an innings and 55.

George Hirst is by no means a young man but he proved that he is still in the very front rank as a bowler by taking seven wickets in Leicester's first innings for 33 and 3 in the second for 15. Kilner (104) made his first century for the champions while Booth made 79 and the total reached exactly 300. Leicester were all out for 90 their first innings and 97 in the second. Leicester seem[illegible] hopeless.

it is contrary to the public (that is, party) interest to save his would be client, and that, therefore, irrespective of the traditions of the Bar, he must refuse his help? It is tantamount to a Unionist doctor refusing to treat a Liberal in the grip of some disease in which the former is a specialist on the ground that the saving of the Liberal might be prejudicial to party interest. At this rate, most sensible people would rather say "Perish party!"

LORD SYDENHAM ON INDIAN HISTORY

Lord Sydenham's little speech at the Royal Asiatic Society in mail week was prefaced with a modest reference to his "five and a half years of strenuous work in Bombay filled with absorbing interests". Returning to England, the veteran was at once struck with the general apathy in regard to Indian affairs which prevailed there. When the sun-dried affect to deplore this apathy, it is generally to point a moral. That moral his Lordship had already drawn at the Anglo-Saxon Club, when he treated "Paget, M. P." with withering contempt, and counselled all else not to bother with what the bureaucrats thought fit to do in India, for India's own good, irrespective of what the "discontented thousands" thought or said. Lord Sydenham is gravely concerned about the education of his stay-at-home countrymen in the history of British dominion in India. But is he so very sure that the result of that education will be exactly what he fancies? Some of the greatest of Englishmen who studied Anglo-Indian history were the life-long critics of the bureaucracy, and the strongest objectors to its irresponsible exercise of authority. If Lord Sydenham does commence his new educational campaign in England, it is to be hoped it will not be a one-sided education but will comprehend something of the lives and labours of Burke, Bright, Bradlaugh and Morley. If that education sciely concerns the strenuous work filled with absorbing interests of individual bureaucrats, or to put it differently, what individual bureaucrats have to say of themselves and their work, as distinct from what others say and think, the results will probably be entirely to Lord Sydenham's liking. But his Lordship is apt to forget that, even in England, to self-glorification of bureaucrats not taken at its face-value, and that tendency is to ask what the people themselves say.

THE TAXI SCANDAL.

The Manager of the Indian Motor axi-Cab Company has taken exception to our comments in yesterday's ssue on the scandal of the removal of he taxi-cab stand to Ormiston Road, o far as they affect the position of his ompany. We are informed that the atement that "the cars belonging to e Indian Motor Taxi Company.....
.....are fully occupied in coping with trade which might be fairly divid-
" is incorrect, as the cars of the mpany are suffering as badly as se of any other owners from the ness which characterises this of the year. Moreover, we are to point out that the Taxi-Cab Company keep only three cars in the courtyard of the Taj Mahal Hotel at the present time, the remainder of their sixteen cars being distributed over the other stands. Finally we are asked to remove the impression that the Company had, in any way, any part in securing the removal of the other owners' cars to Ormiston Road. As regards the latter statement, nothing has been said by us, at any rate, to create such impression. We merely stated, as we still state, that the removal of the stand was carried out in the absence of any demand on the part of the general public, and at the instance of private parties, some of whom stand to benefit by the change at the expense of the owners. So far as the Company is concerned, we agree that they are blameless in the matter. They are a business concern and are entitled to take full advantage of such benefit as may accrue to them from the change. We only regret that the advantageous position in which they have been placed, has not, apparently, as yet increased their prosperity, but we have no doubt they will reap the full benefit when the busy season comes,—that is if the other cars are still kept in Ormiston Road.

DAY BY DAY.

The following dined at Viceregal Lodge, Simla, on Thursday night:—Sir Henry and Lady MacMahon, General and Mrs. Peyton, Mr. Clark and Mr. Barn.

Sir James Meston left Viceregal Lodge, Simla, yesterday morning. Sir James will proceed home to give his evidence before the currency Commission in the autumn, leaving India by the third week of September. Nothing is yet settled about his successor, but it is expected Mr. Baillie, I.C.S., will officiate for a couple of months.

We understand that, pending the disposal of the question of the future of the Railway Board, Sir Henry Burt will succeed Sir Stephen Finney as a Member of the Board as a temporary arrangement. The final decision as to the reconstruction or otherwise of the Railway Board will rest with the Secretary of State and this will be definitely settled by the autumn.

On June 7 last Reuter cabled from London the news of the death of Dr. Habib Ismail John Mahomed, a promising young doctor who had distinguished himself at an early age by having been elected a Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons. At the end of last month Dr. Mahomed, who was in good health, travelled, accompanied by his mother, his sister and her husband from Marseilles to Karlsbad. Dr. Mahomed was unfortunate enough to have contracted diabetes, and in spite of his youth, the incurable disease had by this time broken down his health. Dr. Mahomed proceeded to London where he arrived on June 4. He took rooms at the National Liberal Club, and, in spite of his illness, saw many friends. On the night of June 6, however, Dr. Mahomed lost consciousness and passed away in a condition of coma. The Hon. Mr. Mirza Abbas Ali Beg attended him up to his death and Dr. Hale White, Senior Medical Officer of Guy's Hospital, one of his friends, visited him during his last illness. The funeral on June 12 was largely attended. Dr. Mahomed is mourned by many friends and relation in Bombay, and his premature death, which has cut short so promising a career, is a matter of general public regret.

The "Pioneer" should either change its name or employ more up-to-date contributors. The article on the Sanchi topes mentions among "notable works" on the subject Fergusson's "Tree and Serpent Worship," the fantastic theories of which have long since been discredited, while the writer ignores or—a more charitable assumption—is innocent of the existence of M. Foucher's beautiful monograph on the "Eastern Gate of Sanchi."

The Nawab of Radhanpore's grant of Rs. 1,000 towards the expense of a recital of the Jain holy book of "Bhagavati" on the occasion of a marriage in a family of note in his State is not the first or only recent instance of the enlightened tolerance of Mahomedan rulers towards their Hindu subjects. Nor is the converse of rate occurrence. The Maharaja of Kashmir has announced the free distribution of a hundred copies for a year of a journal, in the apportioning of which preference is to be given to spiritual heads connected with mosques.

Two more Moslem newspapers are about to appear in Lahore. The "Paighami Sulch" (Gospel of Peace) will appear in July and the "Shamshir Kalam" (Sword-pen) in August. The former will generally represent in Urdu the English articles published in "Moslem India". The latter is the revival of an old contemporary which had ceased to exist some time ago. It is a noteworthy circumstance, as indicated by the "Zamindar," that the Deputy Commissioner of Lahore has called for no security from either journal.

Mr. A. P. Patro, a well-known Madras Congressman, who is also chairman of the Berhampore (Ganjam) Municipality, is now in England and is making good use of his visit. In pursuance of his intention to study English municipal institutions, he has had an interview with Mr. John Burns, the President of the Local Government Board, and as a preliminary to the detailed examination of provincial municipalities which he has in mind, has attended one or two of the weekly meetings of the London County Council.

Mr. Joseph Chamberlain returned to London from Cannes in mail week. An onlooker at the station says he walked with less difficulty than on some similar occasions in recent years. Although a stool had to be placed at the railway carriage door to enable him to descend, and he had to be supported on both sides, he was able with comparative ease to move his limbs along the platform. His face was brown with sunshine. A considerable number of spectators stood respectfully near him as he was assisted into his brougham—the only horse-drawn vehicle among the motors in the station. Mrs. Chamberlain also returned, but for the first time was unable to be at her husband's arm. She looked very pale after her grave illness and her long journey, and was herself attended by a nurse.
